

Improved Resilience Makes Good Business Sense

Enable Your Workforce to Thrive in Tough Conditions

Business breakfast

Tues August 20th 2019

8:00—10:00am

Old Hall, Cotton Exchange, Bixteth St L3 9LQ

Hosted by Jigsaw Coaching CIC

Sponsored by Health Innovation Exchange

AGENDA

8:00 Networking

8:20 Introduction & context

Jill Barlow

Making the business case:

8:30 Financial benefits

Nick Small

8:40 Sustainable Development Goals for business

Martin Boot

Interventions:

8:50 Coaching and mentoring

Jill Barlow & partners

9:00 Creative team-building

Francisco Carrasco

9:10 Designing your organisation for resilience

Prof Tony Wall

9:40 Networking

SPEAKERS

Jill Barlow

Director of Jigsaw Coaching CIC. Delivering coaching, workshops and other interventions to support people's health at work, enabling organisations to become more resilient

Nick Small MBA

Liverpool City Councillor. Director of Social Impact Consultancy providing funding and evaluation expertise to help social enterprises grow

Martin Boot

Director of Partnerships, 2030hub. Martin applies his experience of leading international marketing communications agencies to commercialising CSR

Dr Rachel Robins

Director of RVR Consultancy. Executive Coach and Mentor. Personal Resilience and Self Care Practitioner, with clients in higher education, public and private sectors

Francisco Carrasco MA, FRSA

Creative Director of Luma Creations and international musician. Lecturer at Chester University on music business, management and leadership skills

Prof Tony Wall

Head of International Centre for Thriving at Chester University - global scale collaboration between business, arts, health and education to deliver sustainable transformation

How can we help you?

Get in touch for a tailor-made service

Click here to register for event